

PEACE TREATY SETTLEMENT IS MOOT QUESTION

Preliminary Negotiations
Looking Toward Final
Peace Started.

SENATOR IS RESTING

Refuses To Allow Vacation To Be Interrupted by Business.

Point Isabel, Texas, Nov. 10.—Sunburned and blistered, President-elect Warren G. Harding today set forth for another battle with tarpon in the Mexican waters off Point Isabel, disappointed over his failure to land a record tarpon yesterday. The senator set sail with grim tenacity and declared he would bring in a tarpon
before sundown.

While the president-elect is battling with the big fish, preliminary negotiations are under way looking forward for a final settlement of the peace treaty question it was learned today.
It is understood that the senator in announcing he would call an individual conference to determine the sentiment towards the peace treaty, set a ball in motion and that advocates of a league are attempting to agree on a definite program which they can offer the president-elect with the support of a major part of the population. The worries of the peace problem are far from the mind of the senator today and he is paying no attention to informal reports that come seeping into this ancient fishing village.

As evidence that business means nothing to the Harding party, huge piles of mail lay in the village postoffice clogging business and worrying
the postmaster, who can't understand why a president-elect isn't more interested in his mail.

The senator plans to stay on the water under the shelter of his flapping straw sombrero all day today deferring golf until tomorrow. He will probably play a round of golf before making an armistice address in Brownsville.

Get Special Train.

Arrangements are being made for a special train over the Rio Grande railway to carry the senator into Brownsville.

There is nothing unusual in this unless one knows the Rio Grande railway which runs between Point Isabel and Brownsville rivals strongly the Toonerville trolley. The entire equipment is two deformed and reformed freight cars, driven by reformed automobile engines and there are many stops enroute while the engineer coaxes along a balky engine. The cars leave the track on nearly every trip but this only means a slight delay while the engineer and conductor roll up their sleeves and return the cars to the tracks.

What might have been an international crisis was avoided today by Sheriff George Scanlon who totes a man-sized gun and keeps the peace and Y. Carlos, proprietor of the sole safe here came to a sudden realization that a presidential party was stopping here and made an overnight increase in rates, putting his menu card on the same basis as that of the largest hotels. This immediately brought about a crisis between the Mexican restaurant and the members of the senator's party with an imminent physical outburst pending.

Sheriff Canlon saw the lay of the land, held a hurried conference with Don Carlos with the result that prices were revised on a compromise basis.
Don Carlos insisting upon rates about 100 percent higher for the visitors than for the natives. Sheriff Scanlon also caused considerable excitement when he placed three alleged Mexican bad men in the house-gates, chaining them to the floor lest they walk away with the calabasses. The Mexicans it was charged, had celebrated too long and violently and it was whispered that a wee bit of mescal may have slipped over the border.

gressman-elect from the Sixteenth

TRAGIC ENDING OF TEMPESTUOUS ROMANCE OF TEXAS GIRL COMES IN CHICAGO

"La Senorta" Takes Own

Chicago, Nov. 10.—They are telling the dramatic story of LaSenorita's tempestuous romance today.
"LaSenorita," the name given her by the Chicago Association of Commerce junketers during their sojourn in Mexico, is at the morgue, dead by her own hand. She was Miss Theodora Sanders of Laredo, Texas.
More than 200 telegrams in her hand bag, written by Harry H. Garver, foreign trade expert of the Chicago Association of Commerce, the man who jilted her, contribute dramatic episodes to her shattered dream of happiness. Adding their bit to the narrative are letters, protesting their undying love, also writ-

FIRE RAZES HOUSE IN NEW BURLINGTON LOSS ABOUT $7,000

Losses estimated at $7,000 or $8,000
was entailed when the large ten-room dwelling on the farm of A. V. Poland, just east of and adjoining the village of New Burlington, burned to the ground at noon Tuesday.

The flames caught in the kitchen at 11:30 o'clock while Mrs. Poland had left the house to go to a tenant house on the place. When the blaze was discovered a call was sent to New Burlington and volunteers who rushed to the scene extinguished the flames with a bucket brigade. A number of people who gathered lent assistance to the volunteer firemen.

After it was thought the blaze had been thoroughly extinguished the volunteer firemen left, and the smoldering embers were left unguarded. Evidently fanned by the breeze fire again
broke out in the house, about a half hour after the original flames had been extinguished, and this time the conflagration swept the dwelling burning it to the ground, before organized assistance could be obtained to fight the flames.

The house was a ten room frame structure, and its value estimated at $7,000 or $8,000. A wood house and smoke house were also destroyed in the ames, but the household goods were saved. It is understood that only a small amount of the loss is covered by insurance.

The house, corn crib and shed, with all their contents were destroyed by fire at the farm of Fred McKinney, two miles south of New Burlington at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Mr. Mc-Kinney left his Dodge touring car in the shed shortly after 8 o'clock Saturday night, and the shed was discovered in flames at three in the morning.
When the residents of the house were aroused it was found that the dwelling also was in flames. Household goods and farm machinery were destroyed in the conflagration. The machine was insured for $750, the implements for $500 and the house for $2,000, which partly covers the loss.

DEVIL WAS THERE

JUDGE GRANTS DIVORCE ON GROUNDS OF EXTREME
CRUELTY.

Akron, O., Nov. 10.—Judge Henry Spicer, of the domestic relations court officially recognized that the devil gets into people. Today he granted a petition filed by Mrs. Mary Angus for divorce. In the petition she alleged that her husband, Ed, was extremely cruel to her, often declaring
"I will beat the devil out of you," and she asked for an injunction preventing Ed from carrying out his threats.
Judge Spicer wrote across the petition divorce papers "petition granted as prayed for."

ten by Garver.
Expensive gems, estimated to be worth $10,000, some of them gifts of the man she loved, reveal more of the details.
Down at Laredo the home folks are recalling the infatuation that drew Miss Sanders to Chicago and of her fears that all was not well. At St.
Louis hotel employees are recalling her stormy stay there where Garver visited her.
And the silent contribution is a stiletto with a story of its own—the weapon that brought the romance to an end. Miss Sanders stabbed herself to death in the Port Dearborn hotel here late yesterday and died in the arms of Garver. Th, stabbing followed his refusal to marry her.
She had come here from Laredo to hold him to his promise of marriage.
It was her twenty-ninth birthday.

"DRY" LAW CHIEFS FEAR DEMORALIZATION OF FORCES DUE TO COURTS DECISION

Release Of Millions Of Gallons Of Liquors Legally Held
By Ruling Of U. S. Supreme Court Throws Enforcement Officials Into State Of Dismay.

Washington, Nov. 10.—"Dry" law chiefs today were in utter dismay over the probable effect of the supreme decision holding that whiskey
may be "transported" from warehouse to storage to owners' homes.
They frankly fear demoralization in enforcement work may grow out of the release of millions of gallons of liquors legally held.

Some clear statement, further interpreting the rights of whiskey owners under the highest courts ruling,
is expected as a result of the conferences continued today between Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Williams and Prohibition Commissioner Kramer and their legal advisers.

Revision of some of the prohibition regulations now in effect is being made to conform with the decision and other regulations discussed as possible substitutes to prevent heavy withdrawal of liquor from storage.

Officials faced the most difficult problem they have had since national prohibition became a reality.

After officials conferred today it was indicated that the internal revenue bureau may devise a plan calling for certain guarantees from whiskey owners who may seek to remove their liquor stocks and transport them.

Legal advisers of the enforcement bureau doubted whether the government could successfully resist wholesale moves by whiskey owners to withdraw their stocks. Effort to prevent such withdrawals, it was admitted would cause litigation in courts all over the country.

No official records were available to officials today to show what proportion of the 45,000,000 gallons of whiskey and 20,000,000 gallons of gin, rum and brandy now in bonded warehouses would be withdrawn under the court's edict. A conservative estimate however indicated that possibly one third of the amount of liquor thus stored, could be classified as for "personal use," within the meaning of the latest decision. If this estimate is an accurate one it would contemplate the withdrawal of nearly $1,000,000,000 worth of liquors in the near future, reckoned on the basis of present prices.

CORRUPTION SAID TO BE PRACTICED BY U. S. WORKERS

Graft In Purchasing Supplies Charged Against Many.

Washington, Nov. 10.—"Anything I have to say will be said before a proper committee and not informally," Rear Admiral Benson, head of the United States Shipping Board today
replied in commenting on charges made by investigators of the house of representatives probing shipping board activities. "I have nothing to say now."

The report of the investigators,
A. M. Fisher and J. M. Richardson, former employees of the board, was made to the committee sitting in New York.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Corruption of employees and officials of the Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, graft in purchasing supplies for and in repairing Government owned merchant ships and the use of political or other influence in obtaining contracts for ship construction and the allocation of complete vessels to operating companies, were among a maze of charges made in a report submitted to the House Committee on Shipping board operations, by A. M. Fisher and J. F. Richardson, former employees of the board.

Admiral William S. Benson, of the Shipping board refused last night to discuss the report, declaring that any statement he might make to make would be made to House Committee which now is continuing its investigation of the board's operation.

The report was made public last night by the committee of which Representative Walsh, Republican of Massachusetts is Chairman.

GIVE NEW PLANS

HARDING PLANS DRASTIC
CHANGE IN TAX SYS-TEM OF NATION.

Washington, Nov. 10.—President-elect Harding's business program of reconstruction, by which he hopes to start the U. S. back on the road to normalcy, was made public by friends here. Here it is in tabloid form:

First—Revision of the tax laws, which shall include substitution of a more equitable tax, possibly a sales tax for the excess profits imposed;
reduction of income taxes and increase of the tariff for revenue as well as protection of American products.

Second—Reorganization of the entire federal administration, so as to eliminate the overlapping of agencies, redistribute bureaus, reclassify and reduce the force of employees and create a department of public welfare
which may absorb the interior department.

Third—Establishment of the budget system created by Congress at the last session, of legislation which President Wilson vetoed on the ground that it invaded executive prerogative.

GUARD INCREASED AROUND BUILDINGS

New York, Nov. 10.—Twenty-five additional patrolmen, personally selected by Chief Inspector Lahey after a conference with police Commissioner Enright were distributed throughout the financial district to guard financiers and financial institutions.

While official announcement, was lacking at police headquarters, it was understood this action was taken because of threats alleged to be made at street meetings of radicals. At the same time, the detective force in Wall street was increased.

The additional force has been made a permanent detail. Not only will its members stand guard over the sub-treasury, Stock Exchange and banks, and brokerage houses, but it will keep a protecting eye on prominent Wall street figures and also watch messengers as they carry millions in securities through the streets.

ATTEMPT MADE TO BLOW UP CHURCH FAILS

The Youngstown Catholic Church Partially Razed
In Blast.

THE PASTOR ESCAPES

Appointment Of New
Minister Is Thought
Responsible

Youngstown, O., Nov. 10.—The enclosed glass porch and stairway of the Holy Trinity Slovak Roman Catholic Church parish house at Struthers were blown away and beautiful stained glass windows in the community house of the parish were broken at 1:20 a. m., today when an attempt was made to blow up the church property. Rev. John Frena, pastor of the church, who was asleep in the house,
narrowly escaped serious injury.
Struthers police assert the blast was caused by dynamite placed under the porch. The force of the explosion tore a deep hole in the earth.

A bitter struggle followed the appointment of the new pastor to take place of Rev. Father Joseph Zali-bori, who has held that post for six years. The authorities scout the theory that member s of the church were responsible for the dastardly attempt on Father Frena's life and believe that the crime was the work of radicals who live in close proximity to the church who sought to disrupt the Slovak colony. Local police may ask federal aid in running down
the miscreants.

The explosion could be heard miles away. Although estimate of damage was unavailable today it is believed it will run well into the thousands of dollars as the windows destroyed were works of art depicting biblical scenes.

RED CROSS WORKERS IN RUSSIA ARE MURDERED

Report Says Captain and Two Nurses Are Brutally Slain
By Bolshevik Cavalry In Southern Part Of Russia.

London, Nov. 10.—Captain Emmet
Kilpatrick, representative of the American Red Cross in south Russia, and two nurses were brutally killed during a Bolshevik cavalry raid on Salkovo Station, says a Sebastopol dispatch to Reuter's Limited.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Reports reached the state department that Captain Emmet Kilpatrick of the American Red Cross and C. Ateehny of the Menonite Relief Society had been captured in the soviet advance in southern Russia, but no mention was made of the possible death of either one. It was believed that the recent assertion of the soviet government that "an American mission" headed by "General Morel" had been captured by their troops was founded on the capture of Kilpatrick.

Was Country Publisher.

Kilpatrick was last seen, th, advices said, at Novoalexeivsk, Oct. 30.
Mr. Ateehny, who is founder of the Menonite Relief Society, landed at Halberstadt, Oct. 25.

Kilpatrick, formerly publisher of a country newspaper, served with the American army in France as Lieutenant of field artillery and after the armistice as chief of the supply division of the American commissar-to negotiate peace. He obtained his discharge from the army in Paris in September, 1919, and became connected as a civilian with the peace commission.

When the commission was dissolved, Kilpatrick joined the Lithuanian army as a captain, along with a number of other Americans, and saw several months of active service on the Lithuanian-Bolshevik battle front. When the fighting ended he asked for his discharge and returned to Paris to join the American Red Cross in 1920 and was ordered first to Constantinople and then to southwest Russia.

Sister in Alabama.

In the records of the war department Kilpatrick's next of kin was shown as Lida M. Kilpatrick, his sister, of Camden, Ala.

"Kilpatrick was last seen at Novo Alexeievsk on Oct. 30, stripped to his underclothes in bitter cold weather,
and being led away by Red cavalry riders," said the state department's official announcement given out before the London report of the captain's death was received. "His fate is consequently a matter of grave concern."

BARGAIN PRICE

OFFERS TO SETTLE $10,000
CLAIM FOR $1,000
IN COURT.

Akron, O., Nov. 10.—Bargain prices
in woman's affections cropped out in court here today when Ignatz Surcek, Armenian, offered to settle a suit for $10,000, he recently filed against a fellow countryman for $1,000.

Surcek told the court that the defendant had come to his home a year ago, made love to his wife Elizabeth, and then induced her to take his three children and flee to Armenia. He said he was ready to make the defendant a bargain price in settling the case as he needed the money.

ment agent, who shot and killed Bereverly Trumble an inn proprietor, in a

MILITARY AGREEMENT BETWEEN CHINA AND JAPAN CANCELLED

Withdrawal Of Troops
Along Railroad Line Decided Upon.

Tokio, Nov. 10.—Voluntary cancellation of the Chino-Japanese military agreement, and withdrawal of troops now occupying the line of the Tsing Tao railroad in China is reported to have been decided upon by the Japanese government as a result of a diplomatic advisory consultation.

This action was taken, it is understood, with the intention of convincing the world that Japan's activities towards China are above criticism and foreshadows it is further understood, strong representations by Japan to the league of nations for a declaration of racial equality.

The action indicated above was decided upon, it is believed here, in order to strengthen the position of the representatives of Japan before the league by enabling them to point to the "clear record" of Japan in international affairs.

ENDORSE TEMPORARY OFFICERS OF COUNTRY CLUB AT MEETING

Temporary officers and directors of the Xenia Country Club elected some time ago were endorsed as permanent heads of the club for the first year at a meeting of fifty stockholders in the organization held at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening.

The stockholders present reviewed reports from the House Committee, the Trap Shooting Committee and the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws. The constitution and by-laws as submitted were adopted with but a few changes, and provided for the election of nine directors who should choose the officers.

Under the newly adopted constitution it was agreed to endorse the present directors and officers. The directors are J. E. Kelly, R. S. Kingsbury, L. C. Tingley, Steele Poague, A. H. Finley, J. D. Steele, Jr., Dr. R. Kent Finley, J. A. Chew and C. A. Weaver. The officers are J. E. Kelly, president, R. S. Kingsbury, vice president and L. C. Tingley, secretary and treasurer.

These officers, according to the newly adopted club rules, will hold office until October 1, 1932, the end of the club's fiscal year. It was decided to hold the annual meeting and election of officers and directors for the club on the second Monday in October, each year.

The House Committee in submitting its report, reviewed the progress being made on the club house, which will be the center feature of what is believed to be one of the best country clubs in any city of this size near here. The club house is provided with a large club room, a large open porch, and a large glassed-in sun porch, with a lady's rest room, kitchen and locker room and shower baths.

ITALY COUNTS BALLOTS

Rome, Nov. 9.—Municipal elections took place in all the important centers of Italy, with the exception of Rome. In Milan 120 districts gave the Socialists a small majority. In Florence the Socialists were defeated. In Turin Palermo and Naples the Constitutionalists apparently were victorious, while in Genoa and Pisa their success is considered certain. In Leghorn the Socialists were successful.

GOOD NEWS READY FOR KRAUT PRODUCERS

Is cabbage yellow, a disease which often destroys more than half of the cabbage on infested fields in Ohio, about to be controlled? For years this fungous disease has been a menace to the big cabbage producing sections of Northern Ohio as well as to the truck growing districts about Cincinnati, Dayton, Marietta, Toledo and other Ohio cities. Since the fungus lives in the soil and is known to persist for at least 20 years, rotations have been ineffective as a control measure.

After several years of experimentation, however, so-called disease resistant strains have been developed at the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment Station, which were tried out this year in several sections of Ohio. They proved to be 100 per cent resistant, both in Southern and Northern Ohio districts. It is said, however, that inasmuch as the summer was cool and therefore unfavorable for the development of yellows, further trials will have to be made before general conclusions may be drawn. Previous tests, however, indicate that even in years when yellows is especially destructive the varieties have been 90 per cent resistant to the disease. While resistant to yellows, these varieties are not resistant to club root and other diseases.

The All Season and the Wisconsin Hollander were the two strains grown this year in Ohio. Growers in Southern Ohio found that the All Season matured only a week later than the Copenhagen which they have been depending on for their early crop. The Wisconsin Hollander matures much later and is not adapted to the early markets of Southern Ohio.

It is expected that 20 pounds of seed of the All Season and Brunswick varieties will be distributed in Ohio for next season's trials. The seed is being propagated by the National Kraut Packers' Association, on Long Island and Puget Sound. Incidentally this is where most of America's cabbage seed is grown.

PROFESSOR HASKINS.

WAS A kindly soul,
BRIGHT ON some subjects,
BUT SO absent-minded,
THAT ONE day at the barber's,
HE TOOK off his collar,
TO GET shaved,
AND FORGOT where he was,
AND KEPT right on,
TILL THE cash-girl screamed,
AND A barber stopped him,
HE WAS a great smoker,
BUT HE'D often put,
THE BURNT match in his mouth,
AND THROW away,
THE CIGARETTE,
HIS STUDENTS loved him,
HE WAS so full,
OF FUNNY surprises,
ONE DAY he had a tube,
OF RADIUM and he told,
THE STUDENTS all about it,
AND FINALLY, by mistake,
INSTEAD OF the tube,
HE PULLED out one,
OF HIS cigarettes,
AND ASKED the class,
"WHAT is the one thing,
WHICH DISTINGUISHES,
THIS MARVELOUS substance,
FROM ALL others on earth?"
AND the class roared,
"THEY SATISFY."

WHAT is it you've always wanted a cigarette to do? You know the answer. Chesterfields do it—they not only please your taste, they satisfy! It's all in the blend—a secret blend of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. It puts Chesterfields where none can touch them for quality and value.

WELL KNOWN COUPLE QUIETLY MARRIED

The marriage of Miss Rose Winifred Higgins, daughter of Mrs. Catherine C. Higgins, of Home avenue to Charles B. Mowrer was very simply solemnized at the rectory of St. Bridget's Catholic church at 8:15 o'clock Wednesday morning. The Rev. Albert Burke, pastor of the church, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore for the service her traveling suit of duve-de-laine, in Nanking blue, trimmed with braids and seal bands. Her hat was black velvet and she wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses. Charles E. Snyder, of Dayton, and Miss Katherine C. Higgins, sister of the bride, were the attendants. Miss Higgins wore a suit of Pekin blue with a deep collar of skunk fur, and a hat in the taupe and pheasant shades. Her flowers were also Ophelia roses. Only a few immediate relatives of the couple were present at the nuptials.

Shortly after the ceremony the bridal party motored to Dayton where Mr. and Mrs. Mowrer boarded a train for Cleveland for a brief honeymoon tour. When they return to Xenia they will be at home at Number 7, Dadds apartments.

Mr. Mowrer is a son of Isaac S. Mowrer, of Dayton, until recently a resident of Xenia. He is tax deputy in the office of County Auditor Ralph O. Wead, which position he has held for several years. Mrs. Mowrer was formerly connected with the news department of the Xenia Gazette and the Republican, and also represented locally a number of out of town papers. NINETEEN XENIA MEN MEMBERS OF LIONS CLUB BEING STARTED

A Lions Club will be established here, it is believed assured through efforts of Ira E. Quinby, general field secretary of the International Association of Lions Clubs, who has been here on organization work during the past week.

Mr. Quinby now has the applications of 19 Xenia business and professional men, and expects to increase this number to 50 new members shortly so that the local club will be given a charter under the International organization. Among members so far signed by Mr. Quinby are: Ralph M. Neeld, J. Perry Shumaker, City Manager Kenyon Riddle, L. C. Tingley, Ernest Beatty, Dr. J. R. McCormick, E. S. Myers, H. L. Sayre, Dr. B. R. McClellan, John R. Beache, C. A. Waltz, Ralph M. Hall, Ernest Boring, George I. Graham, Raymond A. Higgins, T. C. Long, E. F. Canby, E. H. Heathman and Karl B. Bloom.

At present there are 15 new Lions Clubs being formed in Ohio and eight others are under way. The Lions Club is an organization of business and professional men, bound together for civic welfare and social purposes. The club accepts only one member from each line of business or profession and membership is secured by invitation only, this rule being strictly adhered to by Lions Club organizers. The Club especially appeals to the younger of the business and professional men in each community, and although it is only a few years old, it is growing rapidly and taking a prominent part in all civic and welfare work wherever its clubs are established.

According to Mr. Quinby, the International Club has 15,000 members now in the United States and Canada and is established in 16 cities in this country and the province. Dr. B. W. Beatty, president of the Dayton Lions Club and District Governor for Lions Clubs in this state, has said that one purpose of the Lions Club is to give hearty support and full co-operation to the Chamber of Commerce and kindred organizations working for civic welfare and industrial and educational improvement. The club promotes and lends its backing to each movement which has for its goal a civic improvement or a charitable duty. It is non-sectarian and non-political, it is explained.

One of the plans of the Lions Club is the weekly luncheon, which will be adopted here as soon as the club has been formed, the luncheon idea being varied once a month to permit of a monthly banquet and dance or some other sort of social variety. The first Lions meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce next Monday evening when a banquet will be served to members and guests. A number of members of the Dayton Lions Club including Dr. B. W. Beatty will be present and will explain the purpose of the club. Dr. Frank Garland, welfare director of Dayton, may also speak. The Chamber of Commerce orchestra will furnish the music.

WORKMEN UNEARTH HUMAN SKELETONS

Workmen blasting marl near the Grinnell Mills, between Yellow Springs and Clifton last week, unearthed the bones of two skeletons. From the sitting positions in which the bones were found, it is believed that the skeletons are those of Indians, buried there years ago in the peculiar sitting-up posture, used by the Redmen.

It is believed that the district was either an Indian burial ground, or that thesetwo lone Indians may have met their death violently in some of the brushes with the white pioneers who helped drive the Indian from this territory.

Mrs. Roy Gorman, of West Second street, who has been suffering from appendicitis for some time, is showing some improvement.

Mrs. Emma Spahr, of Wilmington, is visiting at the homes of Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Spahr and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chew.

A TERRIBLE GOITRE

Relieved For Troy Lady By External Home Remedy.

NOTE—It would be illegal to publish these statements if they were not true. Mrs. Dot Cox, 8 North Market St., Troy, Ohio, says in her own home paper the Troy Miami Union: "I used Sorbol Quadruple a year ago and it has completely relieved me of a terrible inward goitre. I was so short of breath I could not use my eyes for reading or sewing, could not stoop over, I was so nervous and my heart would feel like it would jump out. My throat would throb and choke me. Could not wash or sweep at all. Was in bed part of the time. I have been doing my washing, and all my own work since last summer. My whole system is stronger and my throat does not bother me at all. I am as well as I was before I had goitre. If anyone cares to write me, I will be glad to answer." Sorbol Quadruple comes in small bottles containing enough for most cases. It will not stain or irritate. Does not interfere with daily work. Leaves the parts in healthful normal condition. Requires ten minutes daily. Get further information at Sayre & Hemphill's and drug stores everywhere or write Sorbol Company, Mechanicsburg, Ohio.

STERRETT'S Alfalfa Compound

The Best TONIC on Earth

(Liquid and Tablet)

An infallible remedy for Indigestion, Constipation, Neuritis, Rheumatic Pains and all character of Nerve and Stomach Troubles.

THE CROWNED-QUEEN OF PLANT LIFE.

Dr. J. W. Means of Troy. On Nov. 10, 1919, in the drug store of Geo. B. Clawson, Dr. J. W. Means, a leading practitioner of medicine in Troy, who uses Alfalfa Compound in his daily practice, said in the presence of Mr. Clawson, Frank Smith, a former County Commissioner, and the undersigned:

"I attended the recent session of the Miami Valley Homeopathic Association in Dayton and listened with profound interest to a statement made by Dr. Wiggers, of Cincinnati, one of the most prominent practitioners and surgeons of Ohio, in which he unequivocally declared that Alfalfa combined with potassium hypophosphates was a cure for cancer and other malignant diseases."

If the readers of this paper have heretofore noted the testimonial of Dr. Alexander I. Blackwood, professor of the Hanaman Medical College of Chicago, Doctor Ben Bradley of Hamlet, Clermont County, and the several physicians of Troy, they will be thoroughly convinced that Sterrett's Alfalfa Compound is one of the most wonderful discoveries in medicine in the history of materia medica. If you do not take into the system a sufficient supply of protein in your blood you will weaken and die. Alfalfa contains more protein than any other material on the earth. It is the crowned queen of plant life.

Very Truly, FRANK M. STERRETT.

SKETCH OF A BRIGHT WOMAN JUST ELECTED TO CONGRESS.

Now that nearly half the voters of the nation are women, we may soon expect to see quite a number of that sex as Representatives in Congress. It will not only be their privilege, but it will be to the advantage of the country, owing to the fact that women have the reputation of leaning more than men to morality.

We have failed to keep tab on the number of women chosen to Congress at the election. But we note one case with more than usual interest.

Miss Alice Robertson, congresswoman-elect from the second Oklahoma congressional district, received the following telegram from Mrs. Warren G. Harding:

"My sincerest congratulations on your magnificent victory. My best wishes for your success. I knew I might pin my faith to the noble women of Oklahoma to do their part alongside the good and true men of that splendid state. We thank you for all you personally contributed to the success of the campaign and look forward to greeting you in Washington. Mr. Harding joins me in cordial regards."

"Miss Alice" is going to congress. The voters of the second Oklahoma congressional district wished it so by 275 majority votes and their will is law.

W. W. Hastings of Tahlequah, the present incumbent and her late opponent, conceded the election in a congratulatory telegram. All that remains for "Miss Alice" to do is to pick out the right man for her secretary (for she says it must be a man) and wait her call to Washington.

Picture a woman, 65 years old, beyond the average height, beyond the average weight. Give her a pair of blue eyes, ruddy cheeks, a firm handclasp, a kindly smile that makes its recipient feel better for getting it. Wrap her white hair in a coil around the top of her head. Dress her in a blue silk waist, fastened at the throat with an enameled bar pin, a blue serge dress, a pair of black, low heeled, comfortable shoes. There you have "Miss Alice."

"Miss Alice" is a pioneer of Oklahoma, if ever there was one. The daughter of missionaries to the Creek Indians, she grew up in the "Territory," and all her life has been fighting battles for the Indians, the "territory," then the state. The fact that she is to finish her fight in the halls of congress at Washington, the second woman ever to be elected a national representative, does not frighten her a bit.

Jeanette Rankin of Montana, the first woman congresswoman and young enough to be "Miss Alice's" daughter, cried when she had to vote on this country's entrance into the war and ended her career.

HARDING'S INAUGURATION MAY MARK THE BEGINNING OF BETTER TIMES.

No well-informed person expected the election to bring the turning-point in business. But the inauguration may mark the beginning of the recovery which is widely and confidently looked for within six months.

If coming developments fulfill expectations as closely as recent and current developments have, then the future can be predicted with some degree of assurance and accuracy.

Fundamental conditions and current trends justify expectations of a renewal of business activity in the spring, although some calculate that the uncertainty and irregularity will not disappear and give place to animated operations until the opening of summer.

Faith that 1921 will bring healthy, orderly, prosperous business is almost universal in responsible financial and business circles, although opinions differ somewhat as to when the rebound will be reached.

The longer outlook is full of basic elements of strength. Everything tends to eradicate the evils which had to be eradicated before solid prosperity could return. All major factors warrant faith in the advent of better times before long.

Merchants who have had to buy on an uncertain market, and have loaded up on too high priced goods, find it necessary to hustle to get rid of them. Clothing and shoes are cheaper, or should be. Sugar is lower.

The coming winter doubtless will give cause for discontent, but spring is counted upon to bring new life to business as to nature.

GOD GIVES US THE SPIRIT OF SYMPATHY WITH THE POOR

Some people, even in our highly favored land, permit themselves to complain, finding fault with God's providence, as though they had been not provided for as generously and abundantly as they should have been. The fact is that most of us have so much, compared with vast multitudes, that we should be ashamed to possess what we have without dividing generously with those who are in need.

Two little children, who lived in a home of comfort, had a glimpse one day into a home where there was deep poverty and where the children seemed to have almost nothing to make life bright and happy. As the well-favored children sat in their home at their evening meal, they were led to contrast their condition with what they had seen earlier in the day, and one of them said, "It almost makes me ashamed to have so many good things when those other little children seemed not to have anything that is nice."

A story something like that comes to us of some American and English and Chinese children in Peking who had been led to investigate the poverty-stricken condition of some families in that city, with the result that many of them gave up their Christmas presents so as to use the money for relief work. One of these Chinese boys, Yen Ching Yung, said, after describing the suffering in a pitifully poor home, where there was sickness and suffering and destitution, and where they did something to relieve the poor family, "When we came back we did not like to have such fine clothes, and such good food and rooms."

Many a family feels, as they sit down to good meals, in comfortable homes and pleasant surroundings, and as they remember the suffering that so many endure in different parts of the world, that they have more than their own share and that they would willingly divide if they only knew how to go about it.

HOW THE GENEROUS PUBLIC DIVIDES ITS MONEY

BEAUTY CHATS

FACE WASHING HINTS
In such a simple matter as washing the face, it would not seem that anyone could go wrong. But the proverb says, you know, that there is a right way and a wrong way to do everything and this applies to washing the face as well as to other things. The first, and perhaps the most important thing is to choose the proper soap. A strong soap will dry the skin, make it harsh and coarse and induce early wrinkles. An oil soap is usually the best by its very nature, since it takes less oil from the skin, yet at the same time it cleanses thoroughly. I generally advise a castile but this is not necessary.

When He Recommended the Use of Dr. Jackson's Digestive and Liver Powder

Many a man and woman has passed the good news along so their fellow-sufferers might know the wonderful merits of this medicine. Here is a most convincing endorsement:

"During the years of almost constant suffering I had tried almost everything on the market, besides spending time and money with various doctors, without any results worth while."

"A friend recommended Dr. Jackson's Digestive and Liver Powder. I purchased a box and really expected it like everything else I had tried, but the first dose gave me relief. I am now starting on my second box and not suffering since taking the first dose. Naturally I heartily recommend this medicine and am confident a few boxes would cure the worst cases of indigestion."—CARL WALTER, Frankfort, Ind.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH

If Your Blood Is Weak and Clogged With Poisons, Pepto-Mangan Will Strengthen and Purify It

When you get over-tired day after day, your system has to get rid of so much waste it can't create new energy fast enough. The result is that your blood is filled with waste matter. It becomes clogged. You are trying to get around with a lot of poison in your system.

You look bad, you feel poorly. You get out of patience easily. Ambition is lost. You just don't care about anything.

That is no way to live. Your blood needs help for a time. It is starved. You will find help in that fine tonic, Pepto-Mangan. Pepto-Mangan purifies the blood and fills it with red corpuscles. In a little while you'll have plenty of rich, red blood and you won't know yourself. It isn't a magic medicine. It contains iron and other ingredients that feed starved blood and make it rich and red. Physicians have prescribed Pepto-Mangan for years.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer. One acts the same as the other. Both contain the same ingredients. But be sure to get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—Gude's. The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package—Adv.

THE JAPS.

I've met about ten thousand Japs, out here upon the western shore, and they're such courteous little chaps I'd gladly meet a thousand more. Most white men view them with alarm, and say they are a grievous pest; they do our bulwarks deadly harm, and make our sacred boons a jest. I know I ought to join the gang where cusswords in a torrent flow, and make a fierce and hot harangue, insisting that the Japs must go; I know my course is far from right, when I admit I like the Japs because they always are polite, with winning smiles upon their maps. Politeness is an art that's lost where white men hump to make their piles, and evermore I meet a frost where I'm expecting cordial smiles. In every town the skate is found who thinks up caustic things to say; in every street the boors abound, their rudeness jars me every day. But when I seek the Japanese, to buy an onion or a brick, they bow with grace of old grandees, and hand me taffy on a stick. The Japs are taking half the globe because they are so blamed polite; the white man howls and tears his robe, and says it isn't just or right.

head back between the shoulders then roll the head first to the right then to the left and in each case describe a complete circle while the head lies perfectly limp as it rolls around over the chest shoulders and back. Repeat this several times each day. You can also help much by massaging the chin and throat with the palm of your hand. Never use any downward strokes; they should always be rotary or upwards.

Rose.—The preparation you mention is too irritating to be allowed to dry into the skin and remain overnight. It may be you have whiteheads and the treatment for them is to prick them gently on the top. But be sure that you sterilize the needle. Follow this with an application of peroxide of hydrogen, which will heal and cleanse the pores.

DENIES SCHOOL PROPOSALS

Detroit, Nov. 10.—A story sent out Nov. 6, quoting Rev. Thomas R.

Carey of St. Johns, Mich., as proposing a plan to forestall another attempt to abolish private and parochial schools by legislative amendment, was characterized by Father Carey today as a pure fabrication. A proposed amendment to the state constitution that would abolish parochial and private schools was defeated in last Tuesday's election.

"CLARENCE" COMING TO VICTORY THEATER

Whether people get Booth Tarkington's comedy through reading the pages of his book or through witnessing his plays performed on the stage, the result is almost invariably the same—an hour or an evening of rare enjoyment. Now comes to the Victory, Dayton the great Hoosier author's comedy "Clarence" for an engagement of three days starting Thursday night with a matinee on Saturday. This is the attraction which the past season was the reigning success both in New York and Chicago, and it will be intact in every respect, with the original Chicago cast.

JEWISH BODIES TO PURCHASE HOSPITAL

Dayton, O., Nov. 9.—The three local Jewish congregations today started a campaign to give Dayton its third hospital, a $400,000 institution, by taking an option for $85,000 of one of the large residences here. The plan is to spend about $250,000 in equipment to accommodate 100 patients at the start. A subscription list for the institution insures the finance.

URBANA TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY

Extensive plans are under way in Urbana for an Armistice Day celebration in that city. The girls of the city have organized in two teams and have canvassed the city, "tagging" the citizens of the town to raise money to put over the celebration project.

Arrangements have been completed for a parade which is to include members of the four American Legion Posts of the county.

A Madri Gras will be held in the evening and prizes awarded to the citizens appearing in the prettiest costumes.

Following the afternoon parade, Colonel Ralph D. Cole will make the Armistice Day address, and he will present Victory medals to those who have complied with the rules.

The D. A. R. will have an active part in the demonstration and one of the special features will be stunts by the Stinson airplane squad in the afternoon.

WILD DUCKS MAKE APPEARANCE HERE

Wild ducks on tour south, circled over this city in droves Monday evening.

The ducks were first noticed early in the evening, but for hours after nightfall they seemed to be still circling over the city, at times quacking wildly.

Luckily, for the birds, they were well out of sight and gun-shot when the sun rose Tuesday morning. It is thought they were on their regular winter pilgrimage to the south.

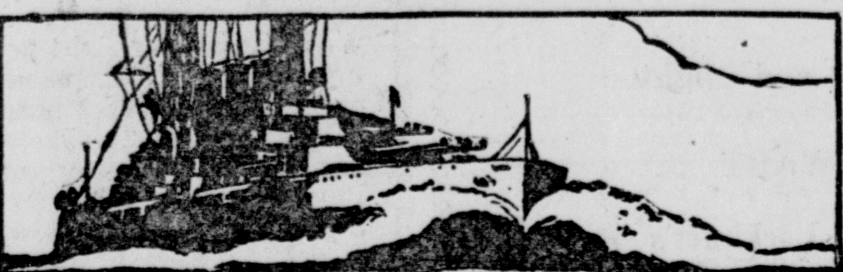

INDIANAPOLIS MEN SENT TO U. S. PRISON

Dayton, O., Nov. 9.—For the theft of an automobile here several weeks ago, Ray Castle, 18, and Frank Badgley, 21, Indianapolis, were sentenced to 18 months in the Atlanta prison by U. S. Judge Sater. Lloyd Harner, who rode back to Indianapolis with them, got six months in the local jail.

THE ARTICLES HAVE BEEN SIGNED BUT THE FIGHT'S STILL A LONG WAY OFF

PRICE OF EGGS SOAR WITH OFF-SEASON

The price of eggs in this city increased 10 cents on the dozen in the past week, due to the scarcity of the product.

The local grocers who have been fortunate to secure them have placed the price at 80 cents, being forced to pay 60 cents on the dozen to the producer.

The poultry houses report a serious scarcity. The reason for the scarcity is the low production, the time of year being the off-season and the majority of hens are too young to lay.

Dealers look for an increased supply in a short time, and say that the present high price is only temporary.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infests the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite prevalent. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface.

One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief.

Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 151 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

MULES ARE ENTERED AS EVIDENCE IN COURT PROCEEDING

Mules will be entered as evidence in court in Springfield in the case of John T. Harbino, Jr., of this city, against William H. Huber, Jr., in a suit involving the foreclosure of chattel mortgages.

William Harbino, a farmer living near Springfield, is alleged to have bought the mules from the defendant and he has been ordered to appear in court in Springfield and bring the two mules with him as evidence.

Court officials are pondering on what to do with the live stock as there is no provision made for parking animals during court proceedings. The bailiff will probably have to act as stable boy.

HIGH SCHOOL MEETS WILMINGTON TEAM

In Central High School football circles this week, the slogan is "beat Wilmington" which team the locals will play on the local pigskin plot on the coming Saturday afternoon.

It was the Quaker combination from the Clinton county metropolis that first upset the Van Camps for Coach Young's squad of striving muleskin warriors this season, and it will be the same combination that will have to suffer the butt of revenge that has been amassed up against them by the locals.

After displaying spectacular form, considering size and weight, by landing a wallop to the much heavier Hillsboro and Greenfield aggregations, Young's athletes, were packing pretty much of a load of confidence when they tackled Wilmington High at Wilmington in the third game of the season.

Whether this was the reason for their defeat or whether it was due to being outclassed, it is not known but nevertheless the Wilmington lads put a victory over the locals that they will have to account for next Saturday when the teams meet here. For years it has been the purpose and aim of blue and white gridiron representatives to slay Wilmington in just as many battles as the two get together, and so this year's team will have to show a comeback when Wilmington comes here, Saturday. The Quakers were defeated last Saturday by Washington High by the score of 28-3, but the locals are promising them a worse defeat than this.

The combination of the local mentor used against Miamisburg last week was highly successful, and fans now have more confidence in the team coming through with a win Saturday.

MILFORD ATHLETIC CLUB PLAYS HERE

The management of the Xenia Maroon football team reached out and got a fancy stepping club, when the Milford Athletic club of Milford, Ohio, was booked for the weekly grid set-to at Reserve Park next Sunday.

The Milford aggregation has been wont to play Cincinnati Clubs and grid combinations from the Queen City that have met the Milfordites say that the team represents a classy lot of youngsters who are adept at the pigskin game. That the Maroons will have their hands full is assured from the showing made by the down staters and fans are expecting to see a real battle when the teams engage here.

On the other hand the Maroons are well fortified for the worst that the visitors might bring to this city. Despite the injury to Paul Fuller, which was a distant jolt to the team, the locals have assembled, with the aid of some of last year's stars probably the strongest line-up that ever represented this city on the whitewashed ob-

A Letter to Mothers

Who Have Delicate Children

This mother writes:—"My little girl five years of age had been delicate all her life. Pneumonia left her in a very weak, run-down, nervous condition with no appetite. We were very much worried. Our druggist, who is a doctor, said Vinol was the best tonic he knew for one in her condition. We tried it and you ought to see how she has improved by its use. I cannot say too much for Vinol."

Long 'Atlas' Smith, whose stellar work at fullback last year won him recognition in this part of the state, is back at halfback, and will make a hefty running mate for Buck, Evans, Moeller and Confer in the Maroon backfield. On the line the addition of Riley and Curt Free, bolsters up the forwards by considerable beef and football ability, and makes the line almost impregnable.

These new stars will be watched closely by the fans in the game with Milford, and the bugs are expecting to see some real line plunging and defensive work when the club lines up Sunday.

MENU HINT.
Breakfast: Grapefruit, Cereal and Cream, Coffee.
Lunch: Bacon, Hash Brown Potatoes, Lettuce, Tea.
Dinner: Celery, Braised Pork Chops with Cabbage, Boiled Rice, Cream Onions, Lettuce, Chocolate Pudding, Coffee.

TESTED RECIPES.
Yeast-Raised Waffles—Scald three-quarters cup milk and while the milk is scalding place in a large pitcher two tablespoons of shortening, two tablespoons sugar, one teaspoon of salt.
Cream together and then pour over the scalding milk and add one cup cold water and cool the mixture to 70 degrees F. Now add one-quarter yeast cake and stir to dissolve, then add four level tablespoons of cornmeal, two cups of sifted flour.
Beat thoroughly to mix and then stand in a place about 70 degrees F. until morning, and then beat for three minutes. Now add two-thirds cup of sifted flour, one-half cup of hot water about 110 degrees F.
Beat to mix and then bake in the usual waffle manner.

Chestnut Fritters—Twenty large chestnuts, one tablespoon powdered sugar, one-half cup milk, one-half teaspoon vanilla, one tablespoon butter, three egg yolks.
Roast chestnuts slowly so as not to discolor them. Remove shells carefully and put nuts in a saucepan with the sugar, milk and vanilla. Cover pan and let mixture simmer until the nuts are very tender, about thirty minutes.
Drain and press nuts through a coarse sieve. Mix with butter and slightly beaten egg yolks. Cool and then roll into small balls about one-half inch in diameter. Dip in beaten eggs and then in fine crumbs and fry a golden brown in hot lard or a mixture of lard and drippings. Serve hot with powdered sugar.

FOR THE TABLE.
Prune Whip—Fifteen prunes, one-half cup sugar, one and one-half tablespoons lemon juice, two whites of eggs, one-half teaspoon salt. Wash the prunes, cover with cold water and let stand over night. Cook until tender, then press through a sieve. Set to cook in a double boiler with salt, sugar and lemon juice; beat the whites of eggs dry. When the prune mixture is hot fold the eggs into it; continue to cook and fold until the egg is set. Serve hot or cold.

Baked Pear Salad—Pare and core firm pears, sprinkle with little sugar, lemon juice and cinnamon, and bake in oven until they turn a delicate pink. Cool and place halves on lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise. This is easily prepared and delicious.

Baked Ham With Noodles—Butter an earthen baking dish and fill with alternate layers of cold cooked chopped ham and cooked and drained noodles. Have ham on top. Beat two eggs with a cup of milk, pour over, cover with crumbs, dot with butter and brown in the oven. A nourishing as well as easily made dish. A good way to use left over ham.

Cauliflower Salad—Boil a large cauliflower, then put in cold water; when quite cold break into pieces and put these to dry on a clean napkin before placing in the salad bowl. Add two shallots (a kind of small onion) and some parsley chopped up, salt and pepper to taste, and pour over it just before serving a half a pint of mayonnaise dressing.

"The Woman He Married"

BY JANE PHELPS

RICHARD, JR. ARRIVES
Chapter 9

My darling boy was born the day Mother arrived. She took charge of the house, let the maid Dick had hired go, insisting she would do what was necessary. She would let the nurse remain for a week, then she, too, could go.

Dick was telling me all this so happily and was so grateful to Mother too, that it made me ashamed.

"She is wonderful!" he said. "With our $200 and her—she is as good as a thousand—we'll get along famously."

"But we haven't any $200," I said weakly.

"Why yes we have, Nan. I mustn't talk to you, I am tiring you," thoughtful as always.

"No we haven't. I had to have some things before baby came—so I drew it out. I had drawn it the Monday after that awful sermon and paid all I owed. I didn't dare wait any longer."

"But—why—what—?" he had turned ashen.

"I'm too weak and sick to talk about it, Dick," I moaned and he comforted me, as he called himself a brute for even asking me what I had done with it at such a time. But that ashen color did not leave his face and as he left me I noticed his hand trembled when he raised it from the coverlet.

But he knew! Now I could dress. Of course he would pay all the bills connected with my illness. It was silly of him to fuss about them. He could pay them as he could just as Clara Watson paid for things.

That night I slept soundly, so de-lighting Mother and the nurse. Long afterward Mother told me that Dick went out and took a long walk, did not come in until after midnight, and that even then he must have been up all night as she heard him in the living room—where he was sleeping writing or walking the floor.

"He was very anxious and nervous about you, Dear. Not many girls have more thoughtful, more loving husbands. Be sure you always deserve his consideration."

At the end of the week the nurse left. I asked no questions as to whether she was paid, or if so, how? I really didn't care. Dick had not mentioned my drawing the money again probably would not—anyway until I was perfectly well. It wasn't his way.

I was feeling fine, and the baby was so good. We had named him Richard after his father, but would call him Junior. I declared I would get all mixed up with two Dicks in the house.

I wonder if we ever appreciate our mothers until we get old ourselves. Mother did everything. She took care of me and the baby, she cooked and sewed, she marketed when Clara or someone was with me and made Dick's money go twice as far as I could.

"If you select all you buy and bring it home with you, you'll find you have far better, fresher food, and that it will cost you less. Never get into the habit of ordering over the telephone, Dear. An unscrupulous dealer will give you the undesirable things, as well as overcharging you or giving more than you order. While the honest dealer will respect you, your judgment and be anxious to serve you. You will do better even with him by doing as I say."

Clara Watson was with me when Mother spoke. She said:

"Oh, Mrs. Hardy, one can't always go to market! It is such a nuisance to get dressed for the street just to market."

"It is the only way for people in moderate circumstances to keep their table expenses down, especially now when food is so very high."

I could see Clara thought Mother terribly old-fashioned, so I broke in:

"You see, Clara, in the country everyone goes to market. I had the habit of calling the small town where I had lived 'country.' They meet and have a fine time gossiping, don't they Mother?"

"Yes, we see our friends. And that is not harmful. We talk over little home affairs, get ideas for new dishes, or how to make a new sort of preserve. But that isn't the idea, Nan. It is the real saving of money, and at the same time getting better food. I hope you will never get the telephone habit."

For months I had scarcely shopped any other way. But I said nothing, although I was honest enough to feel a bit indignant when Clara, who knew winked at me.

I made up my mind after she had gone that I would take that advice of Mother's. I was out of debt. I would keep out. I would save in every way.

That we owed the doctor, the nurse and the druggist, worried me not at all. That was Dick's affair.

Health turns the Clock Backward

Health of Nose Throat and Lungs

(Health Talk No. 10.)
(By G. C. DONOHOO, D. C.)

The health of the nose, the throat and the lungs is important at this season of the year. Nasal stoppage is not only unpleasant, but dangerous. Sore throat interferes with digestion and unless quickly mastered, infects the system. Lung ailments are responsible for more deaths than any other single group.

All these forms of weakness are caused by slight or serious displacement of joints of the spine in the region at the base of the neck. The trouble may be aggravated by bad, or stooping position. Chiropractic spinal adjustments remove the pressure upon spinal nerves to these organs, and with this pressure removed, the healthful condition of nose, throat and lungs becomes a certainty.

No Return of Trouble

After More Than a Year

"I suffered untold misery from asthma and catarrh, ever since I was a girl. I could not lie down at night. I tried one doctor after another, and every patent medicine I heard about. About sixteen months ago I started chiropractic adjustments and became well. It is now more than a year since, and I have had no return of the ailment."—Matilda J. Sears, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 1238H.
